An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Derby in Common Council aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord James Cavendiſh, and William Stanhope, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord High Steward of the Corporation.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Vienna, Feb. 27. Count Dietrichſtein, a Commander of the Order of Malta, is made Maggior-Domo to the Archdutcheſſes Daughters of the late Emperour Joſeph, in the Room of Count Sinzendorf, who is appointed Governour of Brim. Cardinal Saxe-Zeyts has deſired a Collegue to be joined with him at the Dyet at Ratisbon, and 'tis ſaid he has propoſed for that Employment Baron Kirchner, who was the Emperour's ſecond Plenipotentiary at Utrecht. The Advices from Peterwaradin give the following Account of the Departure from thence of Mr. Wortley Mountague, His Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſador to the Grand Signior. As ſoon as he arrived there, he diſpatched a Courier to the Seraskier of Belgrade, to notify his coming; and to deſire him to make the neceſſary Preparations for his Reception. At the ſame Time he would have had the commanding Officer at Peterwaradin ſend another Courier to the ſame Effect on his Part, it having been cuſtomary ſo to do: But he excuſed himſelf, upon his having Orders to furniſh him with every Thing neceſſary, but not to ſend any Meſſage to the Turks, leſt they ſhould interpret it as an Argument of the Emperour's Deſire of Peace. The Turks ſeeing the Ambaſſadour's Courier come alone, contrary to the Practice in like Caſes, ſuſpected he might be a Spy ſent under that Pretence, and thought fit to ſend him back with one of their Officers to ſee if the Ambaſſadour was at Peterwaradin, and to ſettle the Number of Men who ſhould convoy him, and the Place of their Meeting; which being done, the Ambaſſadour ſet out on the 11th Inſtant from Peterwaradin, with a Guard of 150 Horſe and as many Foot. On the 12th he was met about a League and half beyond the ancient Limits, by a Guard of Turks of the ſame Number, who at taking him under their Care, gave the Imperial Officer a Receipt. The Reſident of Muſcovy has declared to this Court, by Order of his Maſter, that the Ruſſian Troops in the Dutchy of Mecklenbourg ſhall forthwith leave that Country. Letters from Buda of the 20th Inſtant relate, that the Day before paſſed through that Place on their Way hither, ſeveral Bojars from Walachia, being charged with ſome Commiſſion from the principal Perſons of that Country to his Imperial Majeſty. Men are kept continually at Work in repairing the Roads and Bridges in Hungary, for the commodious March of the Imperial Troops when they take the Field. The military Laboratory which is at Peſt, is ordered to be removed to Eſſeck, to be the nearer to the Army when the Operations of the Campaign begin.

Bern, Feb. 27. Monſ. Lubiére, Governour of Neufchatel, has lately writ, by the King of Pruſſia's Order, a very obliging Letter to the two Cantons of Zurich and Bern, wherein he offers his Majeſty's good Offices towards compoſing the Differences ſtill ſubſiſting between the two Cantons, and the Abbot of St. Gall. The Deputies which ſome Time ago went to Vyl on the Part of this State, in order to ſettle ſome Accompts between this Canton and that of Zurich, and to try to enter into a Negociation with the Abbot of St. Gall, are returned hither; but it does not appear, that they have made the leaſt Progreſs as to the latter Point of their Commiſſion. This Canton having received Advice, that a great Reform was intended by the States General of their Troops in the Dutch Service, writ laſt Week in very earneſt Terms to the Hague, to remonſtrate againſt the ſaid Reform. We have certain Advice here, that the Pretender has paſs'd through Savoy and Piedmont in his Way to the Pope's Territories. Letters from thence ſay he will go firſt to Rome, and lodge there in Cardinal Gualtieri's Palace; but that after a ſhort Stay he will remove to Pezaro in the Dutchy of Urbino, which the Pope has offered him for the Place of his Reſidence.

Geneva, March 5. The King of Sicily has ſent hither a Pardon for the young Students, and other Perſons of this City concerned in two Quarrels which happened lately between them and ſome of his Subjects in our Neighbourhood. 'Tis adviſed from Turin, that his Sicilian Majeſty has made Count Provano Secretary at War, and the Marqueſs del Borgo, Secretary of the Order of Annonciada. Several Proteſtants who have been lately ſeized at religious Aſſemblies in Languedoc, are ſent to the Gallies at Marſeilles.

Copenhagen, March 6. The fitting out of our Fleet is continued with all poſſible Diligence. The Squadron deſigned to ſerve in the Baltick, under the Command of Vice-Admiral Gabel will be firſt ready, though the Ice in our Baſon and Canal occaſions ſome Delay.
